

Programme Rundown

1 December 2015 (Tuesday)

-
- 1:00 Welcome to the Workshop
- 1:15 “Reflections on the Development of Advance Directives in Hong Kong”
Chun Yan Tse, Chairman, Clinical Ethics Committee, Hospital Authority of Hong Kong
- 2:30 Break
- 2:45 "Ethical Observations on Major Stakeholders' Understanding, Perception, and Preference Regarding End-of-life Decision Making in Hong Kong"
Ho Mun Chan, Associate Professor, Department of Public Policy, City University of Hong Kong
- 4:00 Break
- 4:15 "Meanings of Dying Well: Existential Meaning and Dying Well with Dignity”
Jack Chun, Associate Director, General Education Centre, Polytechnic University of Hong Kong
- 5:30 Program ends

Programme Rundown

2 December 2015 (Wednesday)

11:00 “Teaching End-of-Life Issues to Young Lawyers”

Mimi Zou, Associate Director, Centre for Rights & Justice, and Assistant Professor, Faculty of Law, CUHK

12:15 Lunch

1:30 “Young and Dying: What Is There to Discuss?”

Shekhar Kumta, Professor, Department of Orthopaedics & Traumatology, CUHK; Executive Director, Centre for Bioethics, CUHK

2:45 Break

3:00 “Has the Case for Excluding Psychiatric Conditions from PAD Been Made?”

Bonnie Steinbock, Distinguished Visiting Professor, Centre for Bioethics, CUHK; Professor of Philosophy (emerita), University at Albany

4:15 Break

4:30 “The Meaning of Approaching Death: An Ethical Point of View”

Jonathan Chan, Associate Professor, Department of Religion & Philosophy, Hong Kong Baptist University

5:45 Program ends